First round of COVID vaccinations start here

Jim Ellis
jellis@miami-newsrecord.com

MIAMI — A battle in the war against COVID-19 was launched in Miami on Thursday, Dec. 17.

Seventy-five doses of the Pfizer vaccine were administered to front-line caregivers at Integris Miami Hospital, with another 75 on Friday — with no significant reactions.

Dr. Clark Osborn, a family medicine physician, and emergency room nurse Cory Reeves were the first two to receive the injections in Miami.

JIM ELLIS/JELLIS@MIAMINEWSRECORD.COM

Dr. Clark Osborn and RN Cory Reeves of Integris Miami Hospital, received the first round of COVID-19 vaccinations in Ottawa County here Thursday morning.

“As a health care professional, I feel like it’s my responsibility to take the vaccine so we can eradicate this terrible disease that has caused so much illness and heart-ache in our community,”

Reeves said. “I hope that by taking this vaccine my co-workers, family and community will see that is safe and effective.”

With the Pfizer vaccine as well as one for Moderna that was approved by a Food and Drug Administration advisory panel late Thursday, Osborn predicts that things could get back to semi-normal by July 4, 2021.

“It’s a tremendous thing,” Osborn said. “The nice thing is that this vaccine (Pfizer) is 90 to 95% effective at six weeks. You take the shots three weeks apart.”

He said the Moderna vaccine has been shown to be about 95% effective.

There are another two vaccines that could gain approval in January.

MIAMI — Outgoing Ottawa County Sheriff Jeremy Floyd was arrested Friday, Dec. 18 after his indictment by a multi-county grand jury on Thursday.

“I placed a call to him earlier just before he was arrested, hoping he would answer the phone so I could ask him to tender his resignation so we could move on and keep the citizens of this county safe,” Ottawa County District 3 commissioner Russell Earls said. “He didn’t answer the phone.”

Floyd was arrested at his residence booked in at the Miami Police Department then transferred to the Ottawa County Jail following his arrest on a warrant signed by Associate District Judge Jennifer McCaffrey in Ottawa County.

While the Pfizer vaccine must be stored at minus-70 degrees Celsius — colder than the temperatures in Antarctica — its thawed before being used, then mixed with a small amount of saline solution.

“The vast majority of my patients are anxious to take it once its available,” Osborn said. “It is a new vaccine — there are risks associated with any product, but I think you have to weigh the risk of having COVID-19 vs. the risks of taking the vaccine. I think the safest thing by far at this point is take the vaccine.”

Jonas Rabel, chief executive of Integris Miami, said, “we are very fortunate; blessed to be the first in NE Oklahoma to get the Pfizer vaccination. It’s a very exciting time.

“We do everything we can to protect our staff with masks, gowns, gloves and social distancing if it’s possible. Having the vaccine here and available to give to our caregivers is very exciting.”

Sam Ratermann, M.D., FAAFP, director of the hospitalist program at Integris Grove and president of Oklahoma Academy of Family Physicians, called Thursday an early Christmas gift to himself, his family and the community.

“It will help keep me on the front lines caring for COVID patients, as well as other patients who are hospitalized,” he said during a press conference at Grove.

Floyd bonded out Friday. His bond had been set at $50,000.

Dan Cook is serving as interim sheriff.

Jurors in Oklahoma City accused Floyd of misusing $1,132 in county funds to fly his wife with him on a 2018 trip to Nevada.

The jury also accused him of lying about his past on this year’s declaration of candidacy in his bid for reelection.

The office of Oklahoma Attorney General Mike Hunter will prosecute the case, according to Ottawa County District Attorney Kenny Wright, who is statutorily prohibited from investigating and prosecuting his own elected officials that he is a lawyer for.

The Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation conducted a probe into the results of an audit of Floyd’s department conducted by the office of the State Auditor & Inspector earlier this year.

The report showed Floyd improperly utilized the department’s credit card; charged questionable expenditures, and did not maintain adequate documentation. It also indicated, among other things, that obligations incurred in FY2019 were not timely encumbered and were paid with FY2020 funds, which is against the law.

It revealed that the overall fiscal management of the sheriff’s department contributed to the need for supplemental appropriations over a three-year period of almost $435,000 from the county.

The audit results also noted multiple purchasing statutes violations, purchase orders that were not supported, a purchase order not signed by the commissioner, and state contract records that were not maintained to support that 13 lease-purchased vehicles had been properly bid.

The auditors also reported that they were unable to locate deposits for $4,420.71 in cash bonds received by the sheriff’s department, cash bond receipt forms were not consistently completed, and all cash bonds that were received were not deposited daily or directly in the official depository as required.

Floyd was scheduled to leave office on Jan. 4. That is when sheriff-elect David Dean will be sworn in, along with new county commissioner Steve Chasteen.

Floyd was first elected in 2016.

Christmas! What a wonderful time to be with the Lord! At your favorite season, it is wonderful to know that you are with Jesus, the One Whom God sent and the One we celebrate this season.

Glory be to God in the highest for Jesus Christ, His Gift of Love, to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, and to the Holy Spirit, our Comforter.

*It seems so sad and lonely here on earth;
We miss you, Dear Ones, since you went away.
They say with time we'll come to feel less sad.
Right now our pain is sharper every day.*

*Dear, precious Dad, we loved the way you glowed
With joy and eagerness as time drew near
To pass your Gideon Bibles out in schools.
It was the time you waited for each year.*

*We've never known a man so full of life
Or a heart so big to love the human race.
Our own hearts ache to see that lovely smile
That never seemed to leave your friendly face.*

*You loved to tease; and that's how you both met,
The handsome husband to this lovely wife.
Together always, side by side you worked
And teased and played and loved your way through life.*

*You loved to be the parents of a son
And teach him all the good things that you knew.
With gentle guidance and our mutual love
That special bond among us always grew.*

*Sweet, gentle Deacon, at the church's door.
Dispensing programs, hugs, handshakes, and love,
Oh, how we long to hear your voice once more
And envy those who hear it now in Heaven above.*

*You loved to sing and used your pretty voice
To sing the praises of your Lord and King.
Your home was filled with beauty, warmth, and joy
Of precious hymns we loved to hear you sing.*

*Our only solace in these trying times
When our own hearts are pierced with sorrow's sword
Is that our precious parents have gone home
To be forever there — home with the Lord*

ARLINGTON, Texas — Oklahoma is going right back to the stadium where the Sooners just won their sixth Big 12 championship in a row to play SEC runner-up Florida in the Cotton Bowl.

"That's why guys go to Florida and Oklahoma, to play in big-time games," Gators coach Dan Mullen said Sunday. "This has been such a trying, crazy year for everybody. But it's awesome for these young men, that both schools, they've been able to persevere to get to this point, and finish out the season playing in this type of a game."

The Dec. 30 game at AT&T Stadium will be the first Cotton Bowl for the 10th-ranked Gators (8-3), who are coming of a 52-46 loss to No. 1 Alabama in the SEC championship.
